ANNOUNCING SIGNALS

PROT-AGONISTS OF A NEW PACT IN THE DESERT

A “stone” for Jacob to rest his head, transfigured today as a flint where the spark of a new Birth rushes out. Initial event unrecorded on the book of history, but imprinted, marked, and signed on the keyboard of molecules of life.

Original primeval: resonantia-Verbum.
With no writings on stone temples,
it is in-scribed on magnetic resonance circuits of deep physiology. Gen-ethical code of coming Humanity.

The vibrational code of a new Law, resounding in molecules of life, is the unseen force which today open ways of history and moves the steps of man: while it’s analogical rhythm baffles priests, scribes and doctors of the ancient law.

Prot-agonists of a new Pact:
We have arrived too late in dialectics of history
and too early in an alliance with the Word.

In one way or another, we are “herald-and-experiment” of a new Law: Law that we feel before knowing it.

The key to the existential penury of Humanity in our time is the gravitational oppression of a law that is “strange” to its nature. We have attained a critical point where the law of society and history became strange to man –now, a crisis not only metaphysical, cultural, political, economic, but also structural: life turning against life at the junction of the critical non-return point.

The new Law is pro-phetic:
before the word of man.

Its undulatory wave settles surreptitiously in the weft of history and con-figures with raw material of history a new gen-ethical code of life:

resonantia-Verbum.

The said “generative In-pulse of the new history (Pro-gene) is entirely unnoticed by metaphysics, philosophy of history, and theory of science; but the said in-audible “Sound” divides waters, disintegrates physical atoms, rents veils of the temple upside down: initium-templum. In our time is there any signal of empty temples, allowing us to recognise the creation of a new holy space? –Yes, the sacrificial geste of a martyr of conscience.

The said “sacrificial geste” is the human element which today comes to an alliance with the Word in the incipient light: a gen-ethical coupling beyond knowledge, inserted in holiness of life.

Resonantia-Verbum is nor a new idea,
a new faith,
a new history:

It is “analogical molecule”: Holy arkhitecture of life, operating as gen-ethical Code of human functions to be born.

It is the “critical Note” in the incipient age, “primordial-Sound” breaking the crystal cup that, up to yesterday, only contained the distilled juice of history, “link energy” building a bridge –so far broken– between both shores of the great stream of life. No institution, cultural centre or symbolic form can cherish this liturgical chant emerged from the boson of Earth: every space is occupied (“There was no room for them in the inn”); there is no visible and perceivable seat where the Ark can rest when the waters fall...

Man and his works occupy every space.

But when the Word rules over history, opens (along with history) his own space, resounds (in matter of man) with his own Voice, brings about his own universe of symbols: in-scribes his legacy on molecules of life. This legacy, this signature is universal: it belongs to everybody, to the living and dead; not only to man, but also to cosmos, other kingdoms, mountains, valleys, seas, rivers. We cannot reconstruct by ourselves any more the ecological equilibrium of the planet: crisis of humanisms, socialisms, materialisms, spiritualisms... and other “isms”.

In fact, we did not choose it;
we have been chosen as prot-agonists:
heralds-and-experiment

of a new pact in the Desert.

And it is the gravitational field of this “new Pact” that opens the way to the most than human task that we have ahead:

Preparing the way to the social transfiguration of the Word.
